

A-D-O-R-E

Music & Lyrics Written by Miranda Benhayon

I wanna take a minute or two to speak from the heart and sing these words to you

Oh I how I ADORE You

From afar, beyond the stars you radiate a special kinda glow, that tells me you know,
Just how I adore you

A-D-O-R-E

Having you in my life is so complete

oh - I - oh, oh how I Adore You,

A-D-O-R-E

2 living together in perfect harmony,

oh - I - oh, Just how I ADORE YOU

It's in your every day, in your every way, you spark something within that makes me wanna say ' oh I oh – Oh How I adore you

Like star gazing, at your amazing, you radiate a special warmth and glow, that tells me you know,
Just how I adore you

A-D-O-R-E

Having you in my life is so complete

oh - I - oh, oh how I Adore You,

A-D-O-R-E

2 living together in perfect harmony,

2 hearts connected, pulsing to the same heartbeat

oh - I - oh, Just how I ADORE YOU

YOU WILL FLY

Lyrics by Miranda Benhayon – Music by Michael Benhayon

Since the beginning of days, you were born, born with feathered wings of grace, wings of grace,

Taking flight with life, you were quick to lead the way
With a knowing, never questioning, the magic that's within you would sing

You will fly, you will fly yeah
You will fly You will soar across the sky
You will fly again higher than you've ever ever been, you will fly yeah
you will fly

You shone so bright for all to see, for all to see the, equal grace that resides within, a grace that resides within thee,

Taking flight with life, you were quick to light the way Forever deeply inspiring, Angelic in your ways, you would sing:

You will fly, you will fly yeah
You will soar across the sky
You will fly again higher than you've ever, ever been, you will fly
you will soar across the sky
you will fly

CHANTER FOREVERMORE

(Chanter ~ 'To Sing')

Lyrics by Miranda Benhayon – Music by Michael Benhayon & Miranda Benhayon

Deep within at the core, each one of us has a unique sound,
A resonance that signifies one's light
Have you ever given that sound much of your attention
Have you ever let it out, without reserve or reservation

CHANTER

To sing with all of you is a sound that is sure to serve,
You never know it might open the way for another boy or girl
Singing with all you are is a power we all know
Sparkling forth new levels for all forever more

Chanter for Life, chanter for love chanter forevermore

CHANTER

No matter the language, no matter the words
We all know a universal sound when it is set forth
For it resonates deep within and far across the world
A universal sound that connects us all as 1

Chanter for Life, chanter for love chanter forevermore

FOREVERMORE & A DAY

Lyrics by Miranda Benhayon – Music by Michael Benhayon

As I see you walking my way,
Such delicate beauty full of power full of grace
With eyes so heavenly, one cannot negate,
I'm so thankful for your love forever more.

It's in the way that you care,
With such a timeless beauty far beyond compare,
Your eyes so transparent, sparkle like diamonds everywhere,
You make life so meaningful, It's you that I adore.

Forevermore and a day.
You've been clearly sent from Heaven, just to brighten up the Way,
You just have to smile and life will be okay,
I'm so thankful for your inspiration, forevermore and a day

Your love warms up the air,
So soft and silky shining everywhere,
With eyes so heavenly one cannot but stare,
I'm so thankful for your love forevermore

You live your magic everywhere,
Timeless beauty nothing can compare
Your eyes so transparent sparkle like diamonds everywhere,
You make life so meaningful, it's you that I adore

Forevermore and a day,
You've been clearly sent from Heaven, just to brighten up the Way,
You just have to smile and life will be okay,
I'm so thankful for your inspiration, forevermore and a day

You just have to smile and life will be okay,
Forever changing history
Cos when you smile your love carves out the way,
Forever lighting up the way

Forevermore and a day.
You've been clearly sent from Heaven, just to brighten up the Way,
You just have to smile and life will be okay,
I'm so thankful for your inspiration, forevermore and a day

EL CAMINO

(The Path)

Music & Lyrics by Miranda Benhayon

El camino is the path of life it's the path we're all walking on,
What lies around the corner this life, what are we gonna unfold forth,
I want to know on el camino, how to make our arriba our abajo
El camino it's coming around, it's coming around again

El camino, where the streets are painted gold,
El camino, we can sing y bailamos,
El camino, let the rhythm take you forth,
El camino, los pasos con carino

Now we know it's the path of life, what life have we really chosen?
A life of love, of tenderness or do we continue to struggle?
I want to go on el camino, quiero una vida divina de puro amor
El camino it's coming around, it's coming all around again

El camino, where the streets are painted gold
El camino, we can sing y bailamos
El camino, let the rhythm take you forth
El camino, los pasos con carino

WISER

Music & Lyrics by Miranda Benhayon

We all hold within a deeper kind of knowing,
A knowing so bright and so beholding
A beholding way, that, lives within us all,
For within us all are the keys for truer loving

It's time to get wiser my friends, it's time to get stronger within, it's time to get wise,
so we can rise, ready to love again
It's time to get wiser my friends, it's time to get stronger within, it's time to get wise, so we can rise, ready for days ahead.

Over the sands of time, once more we have the knowing
One thing's for certain – that love has never been more easy Now is the time, for, a truer kind of loving, now is the time to take the step and breathe it all in

It's time to get wiser my friends, it's time to get stronger within, it's time to get wise,
so we can rise, ready to love again
It's time to get wiser my friends, it's time to get stronger within, it's time to get wise,
so we can rise, ready for days ahead

SO BEAUTIFUL INSIDE

Music & Lyrics by Miranda Benhayon

Sometimes I wonder, if you've been sent from heaven,
For your love is the most precious gift of all.
Bestowed so gracefully, a spark that's there for all to see,
We know that true, love is the source

All I can say, is that every day,
You continue to shine like a star, with all, with the All that you are...

My oh my oh my, you are so Beautiful inside,
My oh my oh my oh my you're my equal on the inside.
My oh my oh my you are so beautiful inside,
So sweet, equal beauty in and outside.

Constellated, we celebrate together,
Just as the stars, let's light the way
Bestowed so gracefully, we hold this truth forever,
We know that love - love is the Way..

Right from the start, your love opened my heart,
Forever, inspiring me, with all, with the All that you are.....

My oh my oh my, you are so Beautiful inside,
My oh my oh my oh my you're my equal on the inside.
My oh my oh my you are so beautiful inside,
So sweet equal beauty in and outside

POWER COUPLE

Lyrics by Miranda Benhayon – Music by Michael Benhayon

I can see it in the movements, I can see it see it in your wake,
The power of being who you Truly are, clearly felt along the way.
Side by side we serve together, side by side we live each day,
Igniting within, reflection, like a lighthouse – We light up the way,

Opening up to a new start,
Expressing love, from the inner heart
Living, Love with each another
It's oh so natural, to be a Power Couple

Shining so bright it lights the way home,
Showing all others, how to step forth
Living, Love with each another
You're oh so natural, you're a Power Couple

Dedicated to your be-ing , dedicated to the all,
Understanding truth and wisdom, to this we heed the call.

Hand in hand we know what's needed, hand in hand we live the way,
2 serving side by side together , C'mon Let us Light up the way..

Opening up to a new start,
Expressing love, from the inner heart
Living, Love with each another
It's oh so natural, to be a Power Couple

Shining so bright it lights the way home,
Showing all others, how to step forth
Living, Love with each another
You're oh so natural; you're a Power Couple

Shining so bright it lights the way home,
Showing all others, how to step forth
Living, Love with each another
Oh how magical to be a 'Power Couple'

SHINING OVER ME

Music & Lyrics by Miranda Benhayon

Just like snowflakes falling down, your love is still and settling
As sure and rhythmic as the seasons, your love continues to behold, to behold

Just as the leaves may change in Autumn,
Your love is with me through life's highs and lows
Never justifying a reason, just a graceful holding hand that says it all,
That says it all

I can feel your grace, shining over me,
I can feel there's so much space in loving me for me
I just have to think of you, your smiling face your eyes so true and I can feel your grace shine over me
Shining so bright along the way

Bright and as wonderful, just as the colours of a rainbow
Oh how your love's so magical, restoring the beauty within us all – within us all Your'e like a beacon of light shining
A guiding light out amongst the stars
Your love lights up the ocean, and helps guide me to find my way home
Shining so bright along the way

I can feel your grace, shining over me,
I can feel there's so much space in loving me for me
I just have to think of you, your smiling face your eyes so true and I can feel your
grace shine over me
Shining so bright along the way

A L'UNISSON (ONE UNIFIED)

Original Lyrics by Michael Benhayon (English Version)

French translation by Miranda Benhayon & Maryline Decompoix

Music by Michael Benhayon

Votre vie est-elle Amour, Votre vie est-elle Vérité.
Et à propos,
Avez-vous dit au monde qui vous êtes,
Toute la grandeur qui est en vous.

Avez-vous déjà tenu une main,
Sans la laisser aller.
Et à propos,
Avez-vous montré au monde la Vérité,
Que tous ces rôles ne sont pas vraiment vous.

Si nous nous perdons dans ce que nous faisons,
Ils ne connaîtront jamais la Vérité,
Qui vous êtes vraiment,
Le Superman des étoiles.

Montrons ce que nous pouvons faire
Juste en étant réellement nous.
Ne leur donne pas ce coup de main
Sois toute Amour et ils comprendront.

Nous sommes forts et nous sommes tout-puissants,
Non pas car nous avons l'argent et l'or.
Nous sommes Ceux-là et nous leur montrerons
Que l'Amour est présent en nous tous.

Une fois l'Amour, une fois la Vérité,
Nous tout-puissants nous retournons vers Toi.
Elevons nos coeurs, alignons nos esprits,
Et cette fois-ci, nous rayonnerons.

A l'unisson

Donc, commençons avec la Vérité,
Et cette grandeur qui est en vous,
Et comme le monde continue de tourner,
Soigne tes blessures qui te limitent. (pronounced limite)

Et si nous sommes tout Amour,

Nul besoin de jouer les durs.
Notre lumière peut rayonner
Et nous nous élèverons, tous unis dans la Vérité.

Si nous nous perdons dans toutes nos paroles,
Nous ne pourrons jamais montrer la Voie,
De retour vers qui nous sommes vraiment
Le Superman des étoiles.

Nous devons montrer la Voie de l'Amour,
En la vivant chaque jour.
Plus besoin de coup de main,
Sois toute Amour et ils comprendront.

Nous sommes forts et nous sommes tout-puissants,
Non pas car nous avons l'argent et l'or.
Nous sommes Ceux-là et nous leur montrerons
Que l'Amour est présent en nous tous.

Une fois l'Amour, une fois la Vérité,
Nous tout-puissants nous retournons vers Toi.
Elevons nos coeurs, alignons nos esprits
Et cette fois-ci, nous rayonnerons.

A l'unisson
