

In The Universe

Lyrics by Martin Gladman

So how will we use this dinner
How will we use this dance
Will we circle around for ages
Missing every chance
Or will we choose to go deeper with love
Celebrate the beauty that's in our eyes
Don't worry about telling those stories now
Because baby between you and I
Is the Universe

Will we tap into the ocean
That breaths between the trees
That fills our lungs in every moment
Reminding us of the space we can be
Will we allow the words to flow through our mouths
Or move beneath our feet
'Cos when you move around me like that girl
It's like God's Braille for me to read
In the Universe

So don't worry about those stories
Those troubles don't need to be told
Because in those precious moments
We're being met by our soul
So will we circle around for ages
Or will we take that chance
To see that baby, between you and I
This is more than just romance
We're in the Universe
God knows, the Universe
We're part of the Universe

Everything We Need

Lyrics by Martin Gladman

If you had everything right in front of you, would you take it?
Would you grasp at the opportunity to finally make it?
Or would you squander it away and later regret,
All the things you could have done?
Even if that's the case
God still knows you're the one

No matter how many games we play
There still remains the fact that
We're here on earth
And everything that's around us is designed to
To support us
So we can grumble and groan
And we can complain about
Well, just about anything
But no matter how much we deny
There's something that's deep inside
That's calling us home

So baby let's go
We've got everything we need to get home
So let's go
We've got everything we need

Resurrect Our Love

Lyrics by Martin Gladman

In the past, we used to hide in the barracks
We used to hide from what we knew to be true
And then we made, made the beds that we now lie in
The beds that we've slept in for many years

But the time has come, to sleep no more
And begin to be awake and live the truth
For although we have stirred, only few have arisen
There is still so much work for us to do

It's time to Resurrect Our Love

And even in, in the depths of the illusion
It was all waiting there for us to return
And there may be a, a certain level of clean up
That's required by Universal Law

But now that we face, we face in the right direction
Forever in that Way we will turn
And as more arise, and for those who have arisen
There is great celebration to behold

It's time to Resurrect Our Love

Learn To Fly

Lyrics by Martin Gladman

In the darkness, you cannot see
That is why your light needs to be - turned up
In the darkness, you come to know
Yourself by what everyone else says so - they maybe lies

Spread your wings and fly
So we can see you soar high
Don't hold back on what you know
And baby, don't let go, don't let go

In the darkness, you cannot see
All that you are and all that you can be - so light it up
In the light, you come to know
Yourself by your own eternal glow - so let it shine

We - can - live - in - a
In a body, a body of love
It's as simple as making a few choices

Spread your wings and learn to fly
Then we can see you soar high - above it all

How many lies have we been sold
And how many lies have we swallowed
How many lies have we taken as gospel
Sung them from the roof tops like we're apostles
How many times do we need to spin around?
Repeating the same old shiz just in different towns
What is it that we need to make us wake up
Maybe a little earthquake to create a little shake up
Kaboom! Then we'll hit the ground
And we'll scurry and scurry around
Until we admit that we created it
Only then can we be free from it
So, if there's a time to spread those wings
Don't waste it on these silly things
Spread your wings and learn to fly
Then we can see how we can all fly high

Exhale feat. Michael Benhayon

Lyrics by Martin Gladman | Rap Lyrics by Michael Benhayon

Lay your head down
There is no need to fight
Let your body rest
Surrender to your light

There will come a time when you'll get up again
There will come a time when you'll be on the stage, again
But this time
This time is to consolidate
To confirm and appreciate

Let your heart speak
Let it cease any worries or regrets
Life is about learning
No need to perfect it

There will come a time when you can choose again
There will come a time when you can do it all again
But this time
This time is to renunciate
Why hold on when a new breath awaits?

Baby, let go don't hesitate
Why hold on when a new breath awaits?
Baby, exhale don't hesitate
Why hold on when a new breath awaits?

Lay your head down
This is not a time of misery
Everything has a beginning
And then it completes

Just as we've moved from our day to day
So have we moved from life to life
My love, it's time we say goodnight
Begin to prepare for the new light

Why hold on when a new breath awaits?
Baby, exhale don't hesitate

(Rap)

There's a time in your life, for letting of the strife
Cause each time that you bear, you're running like you care
But there's a time on your clock, it's telling you can't stop
Tick-tock, where you at, time to get out of the fog

Everything that's around you saying what you need to have
But when you got it all, you ain't got nothing to share

So let go of your mind, no need to magnify
What you lead in your head, no longer take it to bed,

So don't identify, no longer hide, cause what you got, will unify, just let it go - rock, drop n flow, just pick it up and tie that bow

I know, you know, there is something to share,
But how long, right and wrong - will get you both no where

So Light it up, yes interrupt, those fireworks, no introvert,
Don't take it slow, this ain't a drill, just exhale and then you'll know

Cause I know, you know, just surrender your flag
Cause we all belong, one love one stand

Why hold on when a new breath awaits?
Baby, exhale don't hesitate

Greater Together

Lyrics by Martin Gladman

Are we willing to start to see
Wake ourselves up from this bad dream
And see the lies

Are we prepared to put aside
The contract that binds our own eyes
And see the truth

Or will we say
Hey, I don't want to see today
And say - Hey, I don't want to head to the call
Or will we say
Hey, I don't want to play these games
And say - Hey, I want to live for the all

'Cos we're greater together
We're greater together
You and I and Everyone

Will we stand by while bullies lie
Be scared by a bark that clouds the sky
But has no bite

Will we see that we've played so small
Allowed so much when we're so tall
And full of might

Or will we say
Hey, I want to see today
And say - Hey, I want to head to the call
Or will we say
Hey, I don't want to play these games
And say - Hey, I want to free myself for the all

'Cos we're greater together
We're greater together
You and I and Everyone

Ladies and Gentlemen
Do you really think they'd keep us down for too long?
Well... guess who's back
Stronger, wiser and far more power-full than before

Welcome to The Resurrection

So, buckle up, sit tight
Because boy are you in for a show
And I learnt something first time round
And that is, that we can't do things alone
So I brought company

(Rap)

Take your time to get back, to an age old fact
Even though we all know that the old winds blow
Your Rising up and out of those dark shadows
No knowing what has been, not trusting who to follow
The sorcerer inside is the one to requaint
It lights it up, leads the way, a Gandalf across the plains
So make your stand in the plan, and the great seas will rise
Be free from the chains and you'll no longer hide

And if you ever think that you've gone too far
You can turn, turn, turn to the beat of the heart
Now I've been down to the depths of below
Now I stand here and I stand strong
It's time we begin to initiate
And rise

Welcome to The Resurrection

We get knocked down, we get back up

(Rap)

Take your time to get back, to an age old fact
Even though we all know that the old winds blow
Your Rising up and out of those dark shadows
No knowing what has been, not trusting who to follow
The sorcerer inside is the one to requaint
It lights it up, leads the way, a Gandalf across the plains

So make your stand in the plan, and the great seas will rise
Be free from the chains and you'll no longer hide

Ladies and gentlemen
The future ahead of us awaits
Will you stay in your own creation?
Or begin to co-create, and rise?

Anything Is Possible

Lyrics by Martin Gladman

There was a time when I wasn't so strong
I had given up on it all
There was fight in my blood and rage in my bones
I had lost sight of, what I was here for

Along came, a man who
Who loved me
Yes he loved me and
He showed me how
How to love myself
Now anything
Anything feels possible now

Now that I stand here as living proof
I am responsible, not to be aloof
With fire in my blood and truth in my bones
There is a greater, plan that we're here for

So will we, like he did
Stand - for - truth
Love deeper, when faced with
Lies that bruise
Will we walk
Will we walk
Will we walk
In the grace of his love

Will we walk
Will we walk
Will we walk
In the truth of our hearts

Anything ~~is~~ feels possible
Anything ~~is~~ feels possible now
There's nothing we can't come back from Anything is possible now

Work

Lyrics by Martin Gladman

Okay, so let me get this straight
So you dug a hole
And then you got in the hole
And now that you've clawed your way out of the hole
You want some form of medal?
But where's the evolution in that?
Because whilst you were down in the hole
In the mud pit of your own delay I might say
There was one thing that didn't change
There was one thing that remained the same...
Do you wanna know what it is?

There's work to be done
There's work to be done

Okay, so let me just go over this just one more time
So you voluntarily dug a hole
You voluntarily got in the hole
And then you voluntarily got out
And now you're trying to tell me you're not powerful?
Come on! ...

Imagine if you put just 10% of that effort you put into, say like, I don't know, not digging the hole
Imagine what you could do with the 90%?
You see, there's work
There's work to be done

Look it's okay, I get it, you're new to this
You didn't know what you were doing, you're learning, I understand
But that excuse would only stand if it was your first time right?
But what if it was your hundredth?

'Cos you see...
We're spinning round and round
Repeating this across many lives
Digging our holes, ~~and~~ wasting our own sweet time
'Cos you got the power, you got the power inside
To turn this around and set this whole world on fire
There's work, there's work to be done!
There's work to be done!

Guardians Of Love

Lyrics by Martin Gladman

When the stars align
Two hearts collide
And they stand side by side
In love

Oh, how they shine so bright
Right before our eyes
And they remind us of – love
They remind us of – love

Some may walk away
Or find it hard to stay
People are just hurt when they can't see

That's why we need
All hearts to be
Visibly seen
As they're Guardians

Guardians of Love
We're all Guardians

People are just hurt when they can't see
That's why we need
The Guardians of Love

We're all Guardians

Even though there is in truth no excuse not to see
There are however reasons
And through these so-called reasons, we get used, if we choose
And become a part of something
That we never agreed to be a part of
And that's why each of us have a responsibility
To never let anything get in the way
So we can truly be
As we should be
